Reading One's Obituary.

In the days of the old Mycalf, the publisher of the Newburywort Herald, (a journal still alive and flourishing.) the Sheriff of old Essex, Philip Bagley, had been asked several times to pay his arrears of subscription. At last one day, he told Mycalf that he would certainly hand over the next morning as shure as he lived. "If you don't get your money to morrow you may be sure I am dead," said he. The morrow came and passed, but no money. Judge of the Sheriff's feelings when, on the morning of the day after, he opened his Herald, and saw announced the lamented decease of Philip Barley, Esq., High Sheriff of the county of Essex, with an obituary notice, attached, giving the deceased credit for a good many excellent traits of charicter, but adding that he had one fault very much to be deplored; he was not punctual in paying the printer. Bagly, without waiting for his breakfast, started for the herald office.—On tee way, it struck him as singular that none of the many friends and acquaintances he met seemed to be surprised to see him. They must have read their morning paper. Was it possible they cared so little about him as to have forgotton already that he was no more? Full of pertubation, he entered the printing office, to deny that he was dead in propria persona

"Why, Sheriff," exclaimed the facetious editor, "I thought you were defunct."

"Defunct!" exclaimed the Sheriff, "what put that sdiea in your head?"

"Why, you, yourself!" said Mycalf. "Did you not tell me"—

"Oh! oh!" stammered out the Sheriff. "Well, there's pour money. And now contridict the report in the next paper, if you please."

"That's not necessary, friend Bagley,' said the olk joker; it was only printed in your copy!'

The good Sheriff lived many years after this "sell" and to tne day of his real death, alwayes took good care to pay the printer.

A BASHFUL gentleman of Holly Springs' Mississippi, took a violent "hankering" after a fair seamstress of that town; and, after a great deal of hesitation finally brought his courage up to the sticking point, and made an evening call upon the lady. He found her busily engaged at her work, pressing off a garment with a tailors goose. She, however, received him very courteously, and continued her work. A bevy of the seamstresses' femrle faiends dropped in a few minutes after her heroic friend had subsided into silence, for her friend it absolutly impossible to maintain a conversation with the lady. The sudden enteranco of the visitors instead of relieving, only added to his embarrassment, and he sat in silence until his situation became painful to all but to none more than to himself. All efforts to draw him into conversation proved abortive, add it became a matter of serious concern to the ladies how to relieve the gentleman from his embarressment without a catastrophe, for he was well known to all of them as a gentleman of great worth, his extreme bachfullness being his only frailty. The seamstress finally got through winh her work, and called out to the negro man in the kitchen:

"John!"

The door opened, and a stout, burly negro stuck his head through th doorway, and sain:

"I is here. Missus."

"John, will you take this goose out:

Our bashful friend sprang to his feet in an instant, and exclaimed:

"I beg your pardon, Madom, for intruding on you, but I'll go out myself!"

And before the lady could explain her meaning to him, he had gathered his hat and made his exite, which was followed by the frantic yells of the girls. I am sarry to add that that little missunderstanding made an old bachelor and an old maid.

TOO CROWDED—A little five year old niece of ours, dislikes exceedingly to get into a crowd. As an illustration of our assertion, we will give a short conversation that passed between her and her mother the other day. They were conuersing upon the recent deaths of the little girls grand-father an cousin, and in the conversation Ada asked her mother:

"Who else is in Heaven but grandpa and little Arthur?"

Upon her mother informing her that all good people went to Heaven when they died, she at once exclaimed:

"Well, then, I don't want to go to Heaven then, it will be so awfully crowded."

A lady asked a gentleman the other day why so many tall gentlemen were bachelors? The reply was, that "they were oblige to lie cornerwise in bed to keep their feet in, and that a wife would be in the way."

BRAG—I have cone to the conclusion that if eou want to make out anythino in this world, the surest way to do it is to brag. It makes no differance what your calling is; just make people think you know it all, and you will slip along well enough. It isn't those persons that have the most education that have the most influence in society, for the reason that the best educated make the least show; the more a man knows, the less he thinks he knows. But the world taken as a whole, look to the outside; and those who make the most show and the most noise generally have the name of being the smartest. Now, I do not say anything agsinst oducation: I would that everybody should gain all he can for his own pleasure, if nothing else; but i do say, that though your head may be crammed full of all the "ologies" under, the sun, and though you may speak every language, if you cannot speak the language of brag, and tell what you know, somebody with not half your sense will get ahead of yeu. So my advice is, Brag. Are you a mechanic—Brag. Make people think you understand every crook and turn in your trade—tell how much you can do, and "stick to it." If you have a profession, brag it up—tell how much business you have, and you will be very likely to get more. Are you a minister—tell how smart you are, and how well you can preach. Brag of your eloquence and you will find your milk and water discourses will slip down as easy as though they bore the "ring of the true metal." Do you teach ideas to shoot—make evrybody think you know all there is to know—cultivate the gift of brag and you will be a popular teacher.

Do you think this is strange philosophy? Ask yourself if it is not true.—Go where you will, and pick out those persons who exercise the most influence over the crowd, and see if it is not those who possess this self sufficient bragging propensity. If you don't have a good opinion of yourself, who will? Again I say ,o everybody, brag.

LOVE.—We find the following tolerably clever description of Love in an old magazine:

Love is like the devil, besause it torments; like Heaven, because it wraps the soul in bliss; like salt because it is relishing; like pepper, because it often sets one on fire, like sugar, because it is sweet; like a rope, because because it is often the death of a man; likd a prison, because it makes one miserable; like wine, because it makes us happy; like a man, because it is here to day and gone to morrow; like a woman, because there is no getting rid of it; like a beacon, because it guides one to the wished for port; like a will-o'-th' wisp, because it often leads one into a bog; like a fierce courser, because it often runs away with one; like a little pony, because it ambles nicely with one; like the bite of a mad dog, or the kiss of a pretty woman, because they both make a man run mad; like a goose, because it is silly; like a rabbit, because there is nothing like it. In a word, it is like a ghost, because it is like everything and like nothing; ofthe talked about, but it is never seen, touched or understood.

A PLEASANT BEADFELLOW.—A diary of a prisoner of war in Western Dixie contains the following suggestive incident: Becoming drowsy I borrowed a blankt, went into the depot, and finding a vacant place place between two prostrate forms, dropped down to rest and was soon in forgetfullness. I have no knowledge of how long I slept, but getting cold I partially awoke, and hunching my right hand partner requested him to roll over and spoon. He made no reply, and giving him a tremendious thump I again besought him to spoon, but it was no go. Turning on my other side, I spoke my other bedfelow and made the same request. He too paid no heed to my desire. Exasperated at what I considered his unaccommodating spirit, I determined to bring matters to a crisis Drawing up my left leg I gave him an unmerceful kick; but he was as immovable as a rock of ages. I was now thoroughly awake. Jumping up I turned down the blanket, fiir-t on one side, and then on the other, and by the dim firelight beheld on either hand a corpse. My nap was finished. In the morning I learned that they were reble dead, brought down to Murfreesboro for burial at Chattanooga.

A minister in Beverly, Mass., who happened to have a few sleepy heareas of the masculine gender, in reproving their somnolenco, stated that throughout the whole twenty seven years of his ministry he never yet had seen a woman asleep in meeting.

A young lady down East advertises for the young man tnat "embraced an opportunity," and says if he will come over to their town he can "learn something to his advantage."

POLITENESS.—It is a graceful habit for children to say to each other, "Will you have the goodness?" and "I thank you." We do not like to see prim artificial children; there are few things we dislike so much as a miniature beau or belle. But the habit of good manners by no means implies affection or restraint. It is as easy to say "dlease give me a piece of pie," as to say I want a piece of pie." The idiea that constant politeness would render social life too stiff and restrained, springs from a frlse estimate of politeness. True politeness is perfect eass and freedom. It simply insists in treating others just as you would like to be treated yourself. A person who acts from this principle will always be said to have "sweet, pretty ways with her." It is of some consequence that your daughter should know how to enter and leave a room gracefully; but it is of more importance that she should be in the habit of avoiding whatever is disgusting or offensive to others, and af always prefering their pleosures to her own.

GOOD RULES.—A lady who has just opened a boarding-house up town, has posted up the followsng "rules and regulations:" The gentlemen must not put their feet on the mantle in the Winter, nor out of the window in the Summer, and the lady must not write her name on the glass with a quartz pin.—If she uses an air tight, sne must regulate the damper herself, and not ring every ten minutes for the chambermaid. The single gentleman must not plav the trombon, nor make love to the servants, nor comb his whiskers at the table. If he does, he won't answer. The lady must not turn up her nose at anything upon the table, unless she has a natural pug, and none of the party must drink with a mouthful of victuals, nor must they fight for the top buckwheat cake.—Terms liberal, and board to be paid weekly in advance.

LEMON SUGAR.—Rub the rind of some fresh lemons upon a large piece of sugar, and as it discolors the part upon which it is rubbed, scrape it off with a knife; when you have obtained a sufficient quatity, dry a little in the screen, and bottle for use when required. Orange sugar may be made in the same manner, substituting very red oranges for the lemons.

SLIGHTLY MIXED.—A littlle boy whose mother had promised him a present, was saying his prayers preparatory to going to bed, but his mind running on a horse, he began as follows: "Our father who art in Heaven—'ma, won't you give me a horse—thy kingdom come—with a string to it?"

THEY have got a new plan in operation "Down East," for the demolition of bedbugs; It goes by steam. One wheel catches them by the nose—another draws their teeth—while a neat little piston-rod punche three grains of arsenic down their throats.

THE BUSINESS OF A SCHOLAR—To talk in private, to think in solitude, to inquire or answer inquiries, is the business of a scholar. He wanders about the world without pomp or terror; and is neither known nor valuable but by men like himself.

DRYDEN, on the night that one of his plays was damned, was met by a coxcomb acquaintance, who said: Dryden, my boy, on my soul I feel for you. Can there be anything more trying to a person's feelings than a damned play?" "Yes," replied the irritated poet, "a damned fool!"

A negro having been brought before a magistrate and convicted of pilfering, the magistrate began to reprove him. "Do you know how to read?" "Yes massa, a little." "Well, don't you ever make use of the Bible?" "Yes, massa; I strap my razor on him."

A gentleman meeting one of his friends who was insolvent, expressed great concern for his embarrassment. "You are are mistaken, my dear sir," was the reply; "it is not I, 'tis my creditors who are embarrassed."

A strong minded woman is apt to marry a weak-minded man, Providence having ordained that a couple shall generally have but the average amount of mind between them.

ONE hour lost in the morning will put back all the business of the day; one gained by early rising will make a month in a year.

A celebrated philosopher used to say that the favors of fortune are like steep rocks—only eagles and creeping things mount to the summit.

"I am astonished, my dear young lady, at your sentiments. You make me start." "Well, sir, I have been wanting you to start for the last half hour."

OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SATURDAY, JULY 11TH, 1863.

PACIFIC MONTHLY.—We are in receipt of the Pacific Monthly for July, and it contains a fine portrait of George C. Yount.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Democratic County Convention will meet at Woodland on Saturday next July 18th, for the purpose of nominating a County Ticket, and transacting any other business which may come before it.

ON account of the favorable news from the East the Union men of this place assembled together and formed a procession headed by a Band of music, on Thursday evening last, after promenading through the town (during which time a salute was being fired), they returned to where the Stars and Stripes floated and made several speeches.

THE telegraphic news during the week have been favorable to the Union cause, and from the despatches received from different parts of the state, great rejoicing has been had in honor of Gen. Meades success at Gettysburg and the capture of Vicksburg.

On account of several communications received this week we are short of room for the despatches, and must postpone till next week publishing the platform adopted by the democratic convention.

HISTORY OF THE CIVIL WAR.—We are under obligations to E. L. Star, soliciting agent, for this County for the first Volume of the History of the Civil War in America, by John L. C. Abbott. It contains a full and impartial account of the origin and progress of the Rebellion, of the various Naval and Military engagements, Heroic deeds performed by armies and individuals, and of touching scenes in the field, the Camp, the Hospital and the Cabin, &c. We would advise all those who can, to get one now, as they are only sold by the distributing agents.

SOMEBODY BLUNDERED.—Either the legislature made a mistake and caused a conflict of law, in passing the act to provide for drawing Grand and trial jurors, or our county officials have misconstrued the law. In view of the fact that the July term of the Court of Sessions had to be adjourned last Monday on account of a legal objection to the manner of drawing the juries, we may inquire who is responsible for the useless cost of the failure of the term? Who ought to pay the cost of summoning jurors and witnesses; the tax-payers of the State, who elected such a legislature, or the people of this county who elected such officers? We have a suspicion that the onus will fall on the legislature—that august body which may be designated as "the legislature of a thousand test oaths."

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—The Board of Supervisors met at Woodland, on the 1st inst. Present full board. On motion adjourned until Thursday the 2d. inst.

On meeting of the board Thursday the contractor for building the court house and jail entered into a written contract for the completion of the building and filed bond therefore in the sum of ten thousand dollars. Bond approved with P. McMannus as principal, W. Hodgdon, Patrick Bannon, Mich. Lynch, G. J. Phelan and Henry Ames as sureties. Accounts allowed amounting to the sum of six hundred dollars.

On motion, and there being no further business, the board adjourned for the term at 4 o'clock p. m.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.—The Democratic State Convention met at the Agricultural Hall. The following are the nominations.

For Governor, John G. Downey of Los Angeles; for Lieutenant Governor, A. W. McKinstry of Tuolumne; Secretary of State, S. M. Bishop of Tehama; Controller, T. L. Barns of Sonoma; State Treasurer, Thomas Findley of Nevada; Clerk of the Supreme Court, A. C, Bradford of San Joaquin; Attorney General, L. C Granger of Butte; Representatives in Congress, W. Whitesides of Yuba, John B Weller of Alameda, and John Bigler of Sacramento; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Andrew J. Moulder; State Printer, Beriah Brown; Surveyor General, Presley Dunlap; Harbor Commissioner, Michael Hays; Justices of the Supreme Court, R. T. Sprague of Shasta W. T. Wallace of Santa Clara, H. H. Haight of San Francisco, J. B. Hall of San Joaquin and Tod Robinson of Sacramento.

Our Celebration!

As nearly all of our cotemporaries have commented upon the above, we have concluded to exercise our constitutional right by doing likewise. We were there (at Woodland) in both the republican and democratic camps, to which respectively we devoted about an equal amount of time and observation. Being utterly opposed in principle to guessing, and not knowing how to reckon, we could not say just how many there were at each camp respectively—but this much we are quite sure of, that at the democratic camp the gentlemen and ladies sat much closer to each other, while at the same time their groundworks were more extensive.

As to the orations, that of Beriah Brown was a brief and eloquent recital of our struggle for independence; of our constitution and its conservative powers; of our prosperity and marvelous growth under the fostering care of the same. The Rev. Dr. Peck dwelt upon the vast sacrifice of blood and treasure made to secure our national independence and the heinous crime of the rebels for destroying the same, adding almost in the same breath, that this same act would (by the providence of God) usher in the millennial day of universal freedom to all mankind. Strange sin of those rebels that brings universal blessing to all! Strange millennial day, when the canibal sons of Fam shall feast upon the rivers of blood, freshly drawn from the veins of the children of Shem!

The Republicans refusing to celebrate with the Democrats reminds us very forcibly of the little boy whose father died, who with his mother were weeping at the funeral, when another brother stepped up who was not his mother's favorite and commenced to weep also, the first driving him away saying t'aint your funeral no how!

We think out of respect to Brown, if for no other reason, no one should have been called to make a speech after him, and even if called that none in our county should have been so vain and egotistical as to have responded.

As to the tables they were both munificent, reflecting great credit upon our county. T'is true that from the Republican table they may boast of having gathered up seven baskets of fragments. That they should outdo the Democrats in this respect is not strange when we compare the processions.

On the whole we must acknowledge it a great success, and give additional proof of the old adage, that opposition is the life of business.

COURT OF SESSIONS—July Term 1863.—L. R. Hopkins, Judge.

The People vs. Louis Keseburg.—Demurrer to indictment argued and overruled. The defendant was then arraigned and plead "not guilty."

The People vs. F. M. Russell.—On two indictments the defendant was arraigned and plead "not guilty." These two indictments, one of which is for burglary and the other for grand larceny, arise out of the great Cacheville horse-race, in which the celebrated horse Billy Monroe was first beaten, then pawned, and then forcibly abducted.

Grand Jury and trial jurors.—J. W. Coffroth, as attorney for the defendant in the case of the People vs. Keseburg, objected to the entire panel of trial jurors and argued that neither the trial nor the grand jurors were legally drawn. His objection was sustained, and after discharging the jurors, the court adjourned till the 2d Monday of September next.

In the cases of the People vs. Jackson and Hudson, for horse and mule stealing, no action was taken and the prisoners were remanded to jail to await the next meeting of a grand jury.

A $10,000 SUIT.—The Bulletin of the 7th says:

William Bowen, the colored man, who was ejected from one of the North Beach and Mission Railroad Company's cars sometime ago, and who brought an action against the driver of the car for assalt and battery, in the Police Court, as reported at length in the Bulletin of that date, winning his case, has commenced a civil suit in the Fourth District Court against the railroad company, laying his damages at $10,000. He sets forth in his complaint that the defendants were common carriers, an incorporated company, and refused to carry him on one of their vehicles when he demanded to be conveyed, violently thrusting him forth into the street, and so injuring him personally that he was obliged to expend $25 in getting himself healed from his bruises. In view of all these facts he now askes judgment against the defendant for $10,000 and costs.

The weather has been exceedingly warm here the last few days.

[Communicated.]

Woodland, July 9th 1863.

EDITOR OF THE NEWS:—On reading an article in the Republican in which the Editor devotes some time to Woodland, Democracy and the 4th of July, though somewhat a stranger in the county and not residing more than four miles from Woodland, and not being a party man, though devoted to the union, and withal having great regard for truth, I have concluded to say a word in reference to the 4th and matters connected therewith. I notice that the Editor of the Republican labors to convey the idea that the celebration of the 4th at Woodland by the loyal citizens of the county was an opposition celebration, and the other one the citizens' celebration. Now let us investigate this matter a little and see the starting point of what he calls the "citizens' celebration." In your paper of the 9th of May please notice a Resolution of the Democratic Club at Woodland, which reads as follows:

Resolved: That the Democratic Club of Woodland precinct invite their fellow Democrats from every section of the county to unite with t' em in the celebration of the National Anniversary on the 4th of July next.

This is the first that we hear of the "Citizens" Celebration. The next that we hear of it is in your issue of the 16th of May in the published proceedings of the democratic club meeting at Buckeye, signed F. G. Russell, chairman. "Dr. Prather gave us an invitation to attend a "Democratic Celebration" on the 4th of July, at Woodland." I presume this is sufficient to prove to "all the world and the rest of mankind" that this was to be purely a "citizens' celebration," "free from party" and that the Editor of the Republican was pledged in writing not to touch upon the "political issues" of the day in his oration. It seems very clear that "Democrats" invited to attend a "Democratic Celebration" would want to exclude everything of a political nature in their purely "citizens'" celebration. That proposition is as clear as mud.

Now Mr. Brown concludes that at the celebration where he delivered the oration and which he calls "citizens'," there were 2000 persons present, and to prove the number says there were 600 plates. No mistake as to the number, 600! The truth is there were less than 300 plates, which, as he makes his estimate from the number of plates, reduces the number to less than one thousand, and from reliable information I presume there were some 800 persons attending that celebration. As to the other, which is generally known as the Loyal Citizens' or Union Celebration, there were just 400 plates, and the table set twice, and lots of good people to eat after the second table. As we desire nothing but truth in this matter and in order to undeceive some of our democratic friends I will say that, at the democratic celebration, there were 70 seats 16 feet long, and their table was 70 feet long. At the union celebration there were 100 seats 14 feet long, and two tables each 60 feet long, and as to those standing and in carriages, I presume their numbers were nearly equal; from these premises we are led to conclude that there were at least 200 more people attending the union than the democratic celebration.

Being somewhat of an inquiring disposition and having an opportunity, I made inquiry of a gentleman who attended the democratic celebration as to what they said. I asked if they said anything against the rebellion; he said no. Did they say anything in favor of the Union? No, they ignored politics.

But he said they cheered the flag—cheered the good old flag, yes, they did, and yet it seems strange when we think of the sayings of some of the leaders of the "democracy." In the town of Woodland, a few weeks since, two democrats(!) at least, I am credibly informed and verily believe, said they "gloried in every 'rebel' victory." That was honestly said and meant. Yet they cheered for the good old flag. Would to God there was more moral honesty in the democracy of Yolo. Glory in rebel victory, that means to supplant the American flag and place in its stead the flag of the rebellion. Yet, some of the leaders of the democracy "glory in every rebel victory" and at a "democratic celebration" on the 4th of July, "cheer for the good old flag"—such is the democracy of 1863. Yours

The 4th of July.

MR. EDITOR.—We the undersigned beg leave to submit to your readers the following statement of facts in regard to the celebration of our 87th national anniversary in Woodland.

We are Democrats, and claim in this matter to represent the views of the democratic party of Yolo County. This party is acknowledged by all candid men to be of almost, if not quite equal numbers, to the republican or union party and to contain within its ranks many men who are as valuable as citizens, as honorable as gentlemen as any in the land, of whatever name or creed.

For the past two years, Sir, the union party has celebrated the 4th of July in accordance with the dictates of their own views and at their own expense. We in common with the other members of our party attended their celebrations. We have enjoyed their hospitality, and we challenge them to say that our actions were others than those of gentlemen.

This year, Sir, we thought to make a return for the kindness. In a democratic meeting held on the 2d of May, it was decided to get up an old fashioned celebration and barbecue on the approaching fourth. The expenses were to be paid by the democrats of Yolo Co. Democratic officers were to officiate, and a democrat was to deliver the oration, but sectional matters were to be strictly tabooed, and political questions were to be strictly ignored, upon that day of all others, when Americans should present the solid front of a united brotherhood.

It was for a long time understood that the Republicans would celebrate the day in your town of Knight's Landing,—and it was fully supposed by all those in front of the footlights, that there would be one and but one celebration in the town of Woodland. But it seems that those behind the curtain knew better, and on Sunday morning June 28th our citizens were startled by the appearance of a flaming poster about the streets, which announced the programme of a celebration wholly different from the one controlled by the Democrats. It was too late for us to recede. Our arrangements were all perfected openly, and it seems that theirs were up to that time secretly, and the result was that two celebrations transpired in the town of Woodland upon the 4th day of July A. D. 1863.

Now, Sir, in all candor, we submit these questions: Have we been used in a friendly, manly spirit? Have the republican managers showed themselves to be honorable, hightoned, widethinking men, or narrowminded and fanatical bigots?

Think not, Sir, that all this is prompted by a spirit of regret at failure on our part. Our celebration was more than a success. We never hoped for such an outporing of the people, and our accomodations and our dinner elicited universal praise. Of our exercises, particularly the oration we need not speak. Already it is winding its way through the medium of newspaper publications through every village in the state, and it is the proud dictator of its own praise. No, Sir. If the celebrations are regarded as antagonists, we write in the exultant spirit of a perfect victory.

Having been wholly unable to obtain a reason from them for their strange conduct, we suppose we may be permitted to assign one at a venture. Knowing their loyalty (?) to stand upon a weak and shaky foundation, they were afraid to expose it to contact for one day even, with the presence of men whom they regard as rebels, secessionists and traitors. If such is the reason, Sir, we appreciate it highly, and submit with all humility to the decree, "Go forth; we are holier than thou"—

One thing more, Sir, and we are done. It has been printed in one paper and intimated by several individuals that ours was the opposition celebration. We have been hitherto in this article, Mr. Editor, very mild, and we beg your indulgence for one harsh expression. Whenever that assertion is made and by whom, whether by the press or by the mouth, it is a base, unmitigated lie.

We conclude, Sir, by wishing long life and many happy celebrations to the citizens of Glen Yolo.

Yours very truly

MCCLELLAN'S POPULARITY.—A few weeks ago Gen. McClellen visited Albany New York, and had a cordial interview with Governor Seymour. On his return, says the Albany papers, he was escorted to the boat by the Fire Department of Albany, and by from three to four thousand citizens bearing lighted torches.—He was loudly cheered all along the route. The ceaseless and disgraceful efforts to the minions of the Administration to blast his reputation only renders him more dear to the American people—to the incorruptible masses, who appreciate his forbearance, genius and patriotism and cordially despise his traducers, from the highest to the lowest. The army of the Potomac has met with nothing but disaster since the jealous and mean-spirited enemies of McClellan removed him from its command. Now the Hallecks, Wades, Greeleys, Burnsides, Stantons and Popes sink into insignificance when compared with the victor of Antietam. The laurel wreath of victory encircles his brow; the cypress of imbecility and defeat theirs.

CALIFORNIANS should test the merits of Dr. HOSTETTER'S Stomach bitters. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a dangerous stomach, impart vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health —Sold by Druggists and dealers everywhere.

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER." Why will people endure pimples on the 'human face divine,' or eruptions of any kind, when it is a fact so well known, that Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla cleanses the skin from all impurity, removing Pimples, sores and bloches leaving the affected parts as healthy, smooth and soft as the flesh of a babe. [Communication from Woodland.]

A Sacramento Editor.

The antagonistic jollifications on the last "Fourth" at Woodland, seem to have provoked more ill-feeling outside of our village than among even the most bitter of our one-horse village politicians. We have laughed good humoredly over the double celebration, and felicitated ourselves upon the very general satisfaction which resulted to both parties during a day unclouded by a single circumstance calculated to arouse bad feelings on either side.

The Sacramento Bee, of which sheet James McClatchey is the "sting," slanders us in two respects. First, it gives the public to understand, that, until recently, Union men expressed their opinions in Woodland at the hazard of being knocked down!

The well known truth is, that the only political knock-down ever known here was exhibited on the person of an enthusiastic young man who happened to "hurrah for Jeff. Davis!" The Bee's second falsehood consists in the statement that the Union men were the first to arrange for celebrating our national anniversary, and that the Democrats then got up an "opposition" celebration. It can be proven by almost every Union man in Woodland, that the Democratic Club was the first to move in the matter, and that the Union men were last in the field.

Such slanders amount to very little, especially when printed in such a newspaper as the Bee, but they provoke inquiry into the character of the originator. We conjecture them to have been written by the principal conductor of the paper, J. W. McClatchey, because the style is peculiar in its verbiage and the substance exhibits one of his habits--a constitutional mendacity only equalled by his talent for blundering. If he did not write it, some subaltern imitator in his establishment has successfully stolen both his style and habit. S. R.

Fourth of July at Woodland.

The celebration of the 87th anniversary of our national independence, at Woodland, by the citizens of Yolo county, was a successful and briliant affair.

A national salute was fired at sunrise, under the management of a number of the Woodland Guards, detailed for that purpose. At half past ten o'clock, the firing of the cannon and music by the Woodland brass band announced the hour for assembling upon the college ground.

The procession was then formed under the guidance of Judge Davis, Marshal of the day, in the following order, to wit,—Woodland Guards, Union Cavalry, Brass band, Orator and officers of the day, ladies, Citizens and artillery, followed by a long train of carriages, all of which moved, after martial music, to the grove selected for the ceremonies, and there listened with marked attention and interest, to the reading of the Declaration of Independence, patriotic songs by the Glee Club, music by the band, and to the delivery of an ably prepared and eloquently delivered oration by the Reverend Dr. Peck of Sacramento. He traced briefly the history of a series of events from the Patriarchal reign up to the present time, all appearing directly to prepare the world, under the dispensation of Providence, for the establishment of a great, glorious and free government in America. He vividly portrayed the cost, in blood and treasure, of our liberties and of the establishment of our Republican government; and he denounced the present rebellion, in terms as forcible as could be used by language.

After listening to the oration, the procession re-formed and marched to the table, where the multitude partook of a sumptuous repast; and the fragments that remained were more than twelve baskets full.

They then returned to the speaker's stand, and listened to regular toasts, interspersed with vocal, band and martial music. Appropriate toasts were given in honor of "The day we celebrate, Gen. Geo. Warren, The declaration of independence, The American flag, Geo. Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry, Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay, The President of the United States, Major Anderson, The stars and stripes, The Spirit of 1776, Col. Ellsworth, Gen. Lyon, Gen. Baker, Daniel Webster, The Soldiers of 1863, Stephen A. Douglass, &c," and were appropriately responded to. Everything passed off harmoniously, and to the honor of those present be it said, that not one of the participants was in any manner under the influence of alcohol.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF TEACHERS AND PARENTS.—On account of some of the Teachers misunderstanding the arrangement made by the Board of Education in regard to school Books we publish the following for their benefit, which we take from the Union:

The State Board of Education (Leland Stanford, J. F. Houghton and John Swett) at a recent session adopted (with a few variations) the books recommended by the late Teacher's Institute. The official books now are: Eaton's Primary and Eaton's Common School, Geography—1. Allen's Primary; 2 Cornell's Primary; 3. Warren's Intermediate; 4. Warren's Phisical; also, Cornell's Outline Maps and Map drawing. Grammar, Quackenbos'. Readers—Wilson's Charts and Wilson's series. The State Board also recommends, but has no power to insist on the adoption of, Quackenbos' History of the United States, and his Natural Philosophy; Hooker's Elementary Physiology; and either Clarkin's or Sheldon's Object Teaching. In regard to these more modern systems, we may mention in passing that a private donation has introduced a full set of Clarkin's Charts into one of our Primary schools, and that they are being used with eminent success. The law requiring uniformity in text books takes effect on the first of September, but there is a proviso allowing the State Superintendent to modify it under particular circumstances. On this subject, the State Board has declared that they recommend "that wherever a good series of books is in use, as Sargent's Readers, Thompson's or Colburn's Arithmetic, Cornell's Geographies, or Green's Grammars, the Trustees shall ask to be exempted; but whenever new books are to be adopted, they must conform to the State series; and in schools where there is no uniformity, the Trustees are to enforce the adoption of the State series. Sudden changes of books are not recommended; let Superintendents, Teachers and Trustees act with good judgment, and the law will be found a salutary one, which will result in the permanent good of the schools. The flippant remarks, that it matters not what book a good teacher uses, will not stand the test of a sober second thought. As well say that a good soldier can fight as effectivly with a shot gun as with an Enfield rifle."

THE CITY OF VICKSBURG.—Vicksburg is the capital of Warren county, Miss., which county is bounded northeast by Yazoo county, east and south by the Big Black river, west by the Mississippi river, and north-west by the Yazoo river. The sirface of the soil is rough and hilley on the east. Almost the entire area between the Yazoo river and Vicksburg is covered with close timber, chiefly of stunted sizo, mostly interwoven with luxurious undergrowth, and interspersed with numerous bayous, creeks and swamps. The city of Vicksburg is built upon a hill or bluff, the highest point of which is between two and three hundred feet above the Mississippi. The Walnut Hills, a little above Vicksburg, rises boldly, with alternate swells and gullies, to a hight of five hundred feet, and from one of the most striking views the traveler meets with on the lower Mississippi. Below the city are Terrill's Bluffs, which likewise present an imposing appearance. All the commanding points on the hills have been strongly fortified, both in the front and in the rear of the town. Vicksburg contained a resident population, before the war commenced, of nearly 5,000 people. It has a Court House, five or six churches three academies, a theatre, three printing offices, and several public and private schools. In ordinary times an active business is done here in the preparation of lumber and building materials by saw mills, shingle factories and brick yards. In 1860 about 100,000 bales of cotton were shipped to New Orleans, the city being the depot of all the Yazoo country Vicksburg, and not Charleston was really the first place where rebel cannon belched forth. On the 13th of January, 1861, four days after Mississippi seceded, the Ruitman Battery, which had been sent to Vicksburg by Gov. Pettus, was planted on the bluff, and fired a shot across the bow of the steamboat A. O. Tyler—a vessel which has since been transformed into a gunboat, and done good service on the Mississippi Tennessee and Cumberland rivers. After that a Custom House was established at Nelne's Landing, where, for a short time, restrictions were placed upon the navigation of our great inland acquatic high-way. The women of Vicksburg were among the most savage of the feminine secessionists of the South, going so far, we believe, as to organize a company of "Home Guards," the real object of which was, by a peculiar kind of coercion, to operate upon the male portion of the population, and drive the men off to the war.—St. Louis Republican.

VIZ: Threshing, reaping and mowing, machines: horse hay rakes, cast and steel plows, plow castings, cultivators, harrows, harrow teeth, churns, cheese presses, grain cradles, seed sowers, corn planters, corn shellers, hoes, horse hose, shovels, spades and trowels, garden shears, reels and lines, garden rakes, straw cutters, sugar mills, fan mills, hay and manure forks, hay knives, axes, hatchets, ax-handles, sickles, scythes, snathes, bush scythes, road scrapers, grind stones, wheel barrows, sausage cutters and stuffers, ox yokes and bows, patent bow pins, budding and pruning knives, well wheels and buckets, etc., etc.

PATENT COMBINED GANG PLOW, SEED SOWER AND HARROW.

We have purchased the right this great labor-saving implement for the State of California, and are having a number made in the Atlantic States for this market.

With this combined Machine one man, with six horses, can do the work of three twelve inch plows, besides sowing the grain, and harrowing it in as he proceeds, thus finishing his work in the best manner possible, without being obliged to travel over the plowed ground This Machine was very thoroughly tested by the farmers of Santa Clara county, where some eighty are now in use; also, by the Messrs. Hensel & Kethley, of this county, and Messrs Hoppin Brothers, near Cacheville. Yolo county. It is made very substantial; is not liable to get out of order, and being on large truck wheels, the Gang Plow, Seed Rower and Harrow, runs lighter than three plows would, cutting the same amount of land.

We are desirous of having these plows generally introduced throughout the State, and are therefore prepared to offer very favorable inducements to farmers and the trade. The following are some of the names of our customers who have used them for the past two seasons:

Sacramento county—Hensel & Kethley.
Yolo county.—Hoppin Brothers, L M Curtis, Caleb Davis, C Travers, A J Scroggins.
Sutter county—M Boulware, A L Chandler.

COLLINSVILLE,

Solano County, California,

AT the mouth of the San Joaquin and Sacramento rivers. Title a patent from the United States.

On Wednesday, July 1, 1863.

The following farms, cottage houses, and homestead lots will be deeded to the purchasers of the certificates being only five dollars each, which is the expense of making and acknowledging the deed. So thus you see it is in the reach of every one to become an owner of real estate.

The object in distributing this valuable property at the mere expense of the deed, is to induce settlers to go to the new City, and by so doing it will enhance the value of property, more than any other way.

The farming country in Solano county cannot be surpassed. Fine soil, springs of pure water, &c, &c A city with such a situation, surrounded by so magnificent a country, cannot but have a great and glorious destiny. A ferry is established between this port, Antioch and New York, making the distance only 35 miles by land, to San Francisco, being a saving of over 100 miles to those who drive stock to that market.

On the opposite side of the river, at Antioch, there is located one of the largest Copper Smelting Works in the United States, with a capital of one million of dollars, and giving employment to a great number of men. We also have coal in abundance and at a low price; and as all improvements in our vicinity will benefit our place, we are confident that we shall have a large settlement at once.

We have a number of Farms for sale varying from 40 to 160 acres each. Persons wishing maps, or plans, or any information, will please address us by mail or express.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutricious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digenstion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the brokendown frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wanted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthful invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

Dr. Guysott's Improved

EXTRACT OF

Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla

Will Cure without Fail

Scrofula or King's Evil, Cancers, Tumors, Eruptions of the skin, Erysipelas, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetter, Scald Head, Rheumatism, Pains in the Bones and Joints, Old Sores and Ulcers, Salt Rhrum, Diseases of the Kidneys, Loss of Appetite, Disease arising from the use of Mercury, Pain in the Side and Shoulder, General Debility, Dropsy, Jaundice, Lumbago, &c.

Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla put up in the largest sized bottles, contains more of the Honduras Sarsaparilla than any other prepation extant, which is combined with the extract of Yellow Dock, the extract of Wild Cherry and the Balsam of Fir, thus making the remedy more thoroughly efficient that any other Sarsaparilla before the public. At the same time it is perfectly free from ALL mineral poisons, whish can not be said of any other of the Sarsaparilla compounds. The Invalid should beware of poisons. Mercury, Iron, Quinine, Potash, Iodine, Sulphur, Arsenic, and many other mineral and metalic poisons enter into and form the active basis of most of the sarsaparilla and panaceas of the day. Guysott's Compound Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla does not contain a particle of the substances; as any one can ascertain by applying the necessary tests.

These poisons may occasionally remove disease, but they so vitiate the blood and impregnate the whole system with their baneful effects, that the first cold or the first attack of disease, prostrates the patient's strength and subjects him or her to the most excrutiating torture, and renders another cure almost impossible and hopeless. Let all poisonous sarsaparilla preparations alone, and use Guysott's Improved Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, which is thoroughly efficacious, perfectly harmless and purely vegetable. All kinds of diseases yield to its genial influence.

Caution.--Beware of counterfeits. All genuine Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla has the name of JOHN D. PARK, Present Proprietor, Cincinnati, O., on the label.

Remember this fact when buying, all without the name of "JOHN D. PARK, Gincinnati, Ohio," on the label are counterfeit.
